Ben Jackson Joins the Ranks of Leading Professionals

Ben Jackson earned a bachelor of science in accounting

ELLICOTT CITY, MD, February 23, 2010, M. Ben Jackson Jr., Principal and Owner of Jackson, Dunham, Sato & Associates, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for demonstrating dedication, leadership and excellence in fighting healthcare fraud.

With a specialty in federal and state healthcare program integrity oversight, Mr. Jackson has been working in his field for the past 39 years. At Jackson, Dunham, Sato & Associates, he works to investigate healthcare frauds and ensure program integrity. He attributes his success to his prior experience working with the federal government.

In 1971, Mr. Jackson earned a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Virginia Commonwealth University. He is a former certified fraud examiner and government financial manager. The recipient of a Manager of the Year Award, Mr. Jackson is a member of National Health Care Compliance Association and the National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators.
